booking conditions

booking conditions at hito

for all group reservations, we apply the standard terms and conditions of koninlijke horeca nederland. these terms ensure your event runs smoothly, with clear agreements for both parties.

group reservations

a party of 12 or more guests is considered a group.

optional group reservations

- requests received via mice are considered optional reservations.
- if availability allows, the request will be placed as an option upon request. a quote will be sent to the booker. the option is valid for 7 days. if the option is not confirmed within one week, it will expire.
- for group requests made within 2 weeks of the requested date, the option is valid for 48 hours. if not confirmed within 48 hours, the optional reservation will expire.

confirming a group reservation

- the optional reservation will be converted into a confirmed reservation when the quote has been signed and confirmed by the booker.
- once the reservation is definitively confirmed, a deposit invoice of 30% of the reservation value will be sent. once this is paid, the reservation is final.

change a group reservation

- the final number of guests, including any dietary requirements and other changes, must be provided no later than 1 week before the event. after this deadline, adjustments cannot be guaranteed. the specified number of guests will be considered the minimum number and will be charged accordingly.

payments for group reservations

- deposit: to confirm the reservation, a deposit of 30% of the reservation value must be paid. once the reservation is confirmed, the invoice for the deposit will be sent.
- invoicing: after receiving the invoice for the deposit, it must be paid within 14 days. the payment will be made through the payment link sent via mice.
- final invoice: the final bill will be based on the actual number of attendees, with the minimum number being the one specified at least 1 week in advance. the charges will include the agreed-upon package, supplemented by the extra consumption of food and drinks, and any other associated costs.

the invoice will be sent after the reservation and must be paid within 14 days.

cancellation of a group reservation

- cancellations must be submitted in writing.
- the reservation can be canceled free of charge up to 2 weeks in advance.
- cancellations within 2 weeks in advance: 10% of the reservation value will be charged.
